Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

The Washington Gaslight company on Sat-urday entered suit against the District of Columbia for work done up to July 11, 1883. The National grange devoted Saturday's session to discussing methods of improving the order and a proposed system of crop reports whereby the reports of the agricul-tural department can be anticipated.

The United States steamer Tallapoosa left the Washington navy yard Saturday evening with eight boilers for the corvette Marion and a complete set of new sails for the United States steamer Ossipee, now lying at League island.

There will be a public temperance meeting beld under the auspices of Rescue lodge, No. 17, L. O. G. T., this evening at the North Carolina M. P. church, corner of Eighth street southeast. A number of distinguished speakers will address the meeting.

In reply to the request of Judge C. J. Hillyer to be allowed to erect a lamp post at his own expense at the entrance of an alloy near his residence, the commissioners have replied that unless it is intended that the gas lamp shall remain permanently, it cannot be erected.

Complaint has been made to the commis-sioners by Messrs. Acker & Neitzy, Roundary street sewer contractors, of large quantities of water which has accumulated in the fourth section of the sewer. The commissioners replied that the district cannot be held re-sponsible for the matter.

The medical gentlemen—Dr. N. S. Lincoln, 8, C. Busey, D. R. Hagner, D. W. Prentiss, J. S. Beale, W. W. Johnson, and J. Ford Thomp-son—selected by the President to inspect the Potomac flats improvement visited the work under the kind care of Maj. Hains Saturday, and expressed great satisfaction at the progress of the work.

Our patrons contemplating portraits and photos for holiday presents will please have sittings and bring their orders for copies as soon as possibl-. Remember, the smallest pictures can be made life size.

Demanding Divorces.

John W. Miller filed a suit for divorce from his wife, Annie M. Miller, Saturday. He alleges that they were married in this city on the eleventh of May, 1868, by the Rev. Father Alig, and have had four children. He charges intemperance, which has become confirmed during the past four years, and prays for an absolute divorce, with custody of the children.

David Craig filed on the same day a bill for divorce from Malinda Craig. He alleges that they were married in this city by Rev. Dr. Brown in June, 1871, and lived together up to February, 1881. He charges desertion, drunkenness, and adultery, and prays for an absolute divorce.

A Conscience Stricken Burglar. Louise Butler was arrested and locked up at the sixth police station yesterday by Office Cole for burg arizing the residence of Mrs. Sullivan, on R. near Seventeenth street. She broke the slats in the window of Mrs. Suilivan's house and getting in stole a lady's coat, some table linen, and underwear to the value of $100. She become conscience stricken and returned the plunder. She is held for the officers of the second police precinct.

Sentence Suspended.

When Frank B. Sullivan was called up for centence in the criminal court on Saturday Mr. E. P. Phelps, his counsel, stated to the court that he had filed a motion for new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence, and he now asked the court to suspend sentence. The court, after remarking that he thought Mr. Phelps had done his share in getting off criminals lately, granted the re-
